The Programme Officer of NSS MANUU, Mr K. M. Ziauddin, Asst. Professor at Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion & Inclusive Policy of the university conducted the entire programme and introduced the Guests, Panellists and Discussants of the day at CPDUMT Auditorium, MANUU. Mr Ziauddin gave power point presentation on NSS and motivated the volunteers and created interest in NSS activities. He outlined the future activities of the NSS cell at MANUU.

Slogan Writing and Quiz Competition

Mr Israr Alam, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Social Work, MANUU coordinated and anchored the Slogan writing and Quiz competition. The slogan writing competition was held in the Lecture Hall Complex, MANUU and Quiz competition was held at CPDUMT auditorium.

Mr. Syed Imran Razvi, student of B.Ed. and Mr. Suhel Ahmad, student of Master of Social Work, got first and second prizes for slogan writing on the theme "From Non-Violence to Humanity". A total of 28 students participated in the slogan writing competition. The slogans were written in English, Hindi and Urdu languages. The jury consisting of Dr. Farida Siddiqui, Dr. Abdul Wahid and Mr. Shahid Raza finalised the winners of slogan writing and had a tough time in deciding the first and second rank among the top two best slogans.

A total of 29 volunteers participated in the Quiz competition. The quiz was based on the life and writings of Mahatma Gandhi and was conducted in an open, interesting and interactive manner.

The first buzzer approach in the form of raising the hand was adopted for answering the quiz questions. Prof. T.V. Kattimani, Dr. Farida Siddiqui and Dr. Abdul Wahid were the panellist to moderate and manage the quiz. On spot reward in the form of chocolates were given to participants giving the correct answer. Mr. Nayyar Iqbal, student of B.Ed., was given first prize in quiz competition for answering maximum number of questions.

Screening of Documentary film "Little Terrorist" & Post-Screening Discussion

Dr. Mohd. Shahid, Programme Coordinator, NSS and Head, Deptt. of Social Work reflected on the background of the NSS Cell and the intention of screening the documentary film "Little Terrorist" on Non-Violence Day. Prof. T.V. Kattimani, Dean, School of Mass Communication and Journalism, chaired the session and Dr. Farida Siddiqui, Honorary Director, Central Library MANUU and Dr. Abdul Wahid, Head, Deptt. of Computer Sciences and Technology were the Discussants. The 15 minutes documentary film directed by Ashwin Kumar captivated the audience invoking the finer grains of humanity which are beyond the territorial and ritualistic boundaries of region, religion and caste. The post-screening discussion continued for more than two hours and had to be cut-short for the want of time. But it served the purpose of motivating and sensitizing the students for the large cause of humanity. Prof. T.V. Kattimani encouraged the students for actively participating in the out-door activities of the NSS. Reflecting through his life experiences and writings of Farnishwar Nath Renu he argued the importance of social service and how little efforts of volunteers can create wonders in the lives of others.

Prize Distribution and Thanks Giving!!

The prizes were given in the forms of Oxford English to Urdu Dictionary. Mr. Shahid Raza, Assistant Professor, Deptt. of Social Work, MANUU articulated the spirit behind finalising the prize items and exhorted volunteers for the use of dictionary in the age of internet. Mr Raza proposed the vote of thanks to guests, jury, teachers, staff, NSS volunteers and students. Special thanks to Dr. Aftab Alam, Mr. Imtiyaz Alam, Mr. Hussain, Mahfuz, Muffakir, Yasir, Vakeel, Shameem, Faheem from MANUU. The students from Roda Mistry College of Social Work, Osmania University also participated in the activities. The programme ended with the Pledge of the Day by all participants.
