Azad Day begins on colourful note

Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) started week-long celebrations to pay tribute to the prominent freedom fighter and first education Minister of Independent India, Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad with a colourful ceremony held at its Model School in Faizabad.

In his presidential address, MANUU Vice-Chancellor Dr Mohammad Ashad Parvaiz advised students to ponder over things before acceptance. Parents should focus on good upbringing of the children. He appreciated the Model School students for presenting a cultural programme with a message. MLC Amin Jafery exhorted students to avail different scholarships provided by Central and State governments.

In her address first Muslim female pilot from Hyderabad Syeda Shabna throw light on the advantages of the child society. She also highlighted the importance of girls' child education.

Earlier, students of MANUU Model School presented a bouquet of cultural performances and won accolades from the audience.

A thematic dance performance 'Say no to Plastic' touched one and all. Famous poet Allama Iqbal's message to children and youth was enacted perfectly by Shailata and Neha. Drama 'Social Media and Our Youth' delivered a thought provoking message to the students. Science, Arts and Crafts exhibition by students was also organized on the occasion. The week-long celebrations will conclude on November 11.
