UNICEF Workshop on Child Rights ends at MANUU
November 18, 2019  Muduvai Hidayathulla

Hyderabad:
UNICEF has been working for child rights over the past several years. The purpose of conducting this program in MANUU is to make journalism students responsible & sensitive towards the rights of children. These were the views expressed by Ms. Sonia Sarkar, Communication Officer (Media), UNICEF India, on the second day of the Workshop.

As a part of the Global Rights Act, a healthy media could help governments in taking steps towards providing social and educational rights to the children in India, she added.

The workshop was conducted as part of the 30 years of CRC celebrations and in continuance with UNICEF’s capacity building initiatives to instill child’s rights’ perspective in reporting among the academica and budding journalists.

Prof Mohd Fariyad, Dept. of MCJ, MANUU while opening the discussion on the second day morning said that UNICEF has introduced tenets of the Child Rights Convention and gave brief explanation about the 54 articles under CRC with an emphasis on Youth Voices and Child Participation.

Mr. Surindre Dhaleta, UNICEF officer in his address said that India ratified the convention in 1992 and since then has done much on this front.

Dr. K. S. Arul Selvan, Associate Professor, SOJNMS, IGNOU spoke on Child Rights and Media. While throwing light on Article 12, 13 & 17 of the CRC it was emphasized that child participation is integral to CRC.

Eminent journalist Dr. M. H. Ghazali spoke about ‘Children’s Participation in Child Rights’. He presented short films highlighting the dropout rates of Children in India and later had discussion with the participants regarding the message that emerged from videos.

Mr. Tehseen Munawar, Editor, News18, New Delhi spoke about the problems and prospects of Child rights to highlight the basic issues faced by children in India. Group Work was also conducted by the Trainers.

Prof. Ehtesham Ahmad Khan, Dean & Head, Dept of MCJ in his valedictory remarks said that the students will surely implement the knowledge gained in the workshop in their journalistic carrier. The course on Child Rights has been adapted for media and will be rolled out at MANUU in order to give child rights perspective to budding media, he added. Prof. Khan also proposed vote of thanks.
