

List of Activities

Student Development Program (SDP)

MBA, is a professional course, where in students acquire the theoretical knowledge through class room setting. Today's market is characterized by competition and looking for candidates beyond technical knowledge. Further it requires them to acquire skills to impart their knowledge in real world.

Activity sessions in the curriculum of Department of Management are intended to impart various skills such as – Communication skills, Interpersonal skills, the ability to work in team, leadership skills, negotiation skills, thinking skills such as innovation and creativity.

Internships

The students of MBA II year has to submit a project report after doing internship in an organization. The students has to undergo minimum forty five days internship programme in an organization as per their respective functional area.

Academic competitions :

As a part of co-curricular activity students are encouraged to participate in various Management Fests organisaed by the Universities.

Entrepreneurship Development Programmes.

Entrepreneurship Development Programme.

Entrepreneurship Development Programme.

Mentor programs

Leadership programs

Management Games

Seminars on Project Management

Industrial Visits

Industrial visit:

