About the University

Maulana Azad National Urdu University is a Central University established by an act of Parliament in 1998, at Hyderabad, with the Mandate to promote and develop the Urdu Language, to impart Vocational and Technical Education in Urdu Medium and to empower "Women" through education. There are Seven Schools of studies to promote higher education. The department of Persian is a part of the School of Languages, linguistics and Indology.

About the Department of Persian

Established in March 2008, The department of Persian started its academic activities by launching regular campus courses. As it is running six courses including B.A., M.A. in Persian, two research programs M.Phil. & Ph.D., and two part time and parallel courses, diploma (one year) and proficiency (one semester). The department aims to promote serious researches from all aspects of Persian Language, Literature and Culture. Keeping in view the thirist areas of Persian Research, the research scholars are continuously engaged to work on Persian manuscripts, composite culture of the Deccan and Sufi Tazkiras etc. and more research projects are taken up on Historiography, Histories of medieval deccan and on interdisciplinary subjects as well.

About the Seminar

For centuries in the Medieval History of India, "Persian" as an official language in the courts throughout the sub-continent became the language of literary expressions and academic pursuits of the men of letters, especially the elite class of Medieval Society. Simultaneously, through the language and literature Persian Art and Culture became of major component of medieval Indian Culture and Society. As a result of these endeavors, a massive treasure of Persian works comprised the variety of subjects ranging from Poetry, Sufism, Historical, Social and cultural themes, Persian fine Arts came into existence.

- These literary and artistic works were patronized by the rulers and their nobles equally, also the Ladies of Royal and Noble, especially Mughal, Nawabs of Awad, Hyderabad and Bhopal families not only patronized the Persian fine arts but also take part in it by their efforts in Persian Poetry and fine arts.
- The Persian Language was flourished and culture was prevailed literature was patronized even by women equally.
- In the present scenario as well, in the Universities of Indian sub-continent, women are continuously contributing to promote Persian Language and Literature by their works.
