Oriental course at UGC-HRDC, MANUU concluded

Hyderabad:

The UGC - Human Resource Development Centre (HRDC) at Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) organized two week long refresher course in Oriental Studies (Urdu, Persian and Arabic). The course was inaugurated on 2nd 2019.

Prof. Ayub Khan, PVC, MANUU, while speaking as the chief guest of valedictory held on 15th July, said the languages open up a host of areas for study and research. Every subject needs languages for communication and this course is creating awareness among language teachers.

The Course Coordinator, Prof. Shahid Naukhez, Head, Department of Persian presented the detailed report and conducted the valedictory. Thirty Assistant Professors of Urdu, Arabic and Persian languages from all over India attended the programme.

Participants shared their experiences and presented feedback about the programme. Certificates were also distributed to them.

Earlier, Dr Tahseen Bilgrami, Deputy Director of UGC-HRDC welcomed the gathering. Dr Ishtiyaq Ahmad, Assistant Director of UGC-HRDC, MANUU proposed vote of thanks.
