NOTICE

Dear Boarders,

It has come to notice that many of the students are requesting about re-opening of the Hostel facility to appear in final year examinations; as well as other examinations like- NET etc.

In this regard, after assessing the situation of COVID-19 pandemic in the Telangana State and Hyderabad/GHMC, the University has decided that Hostel facility will be remained closed till 30th September, 2020.

Therefore, students are directed not to move from their respective native places, till University notifies/intimates about the re-opening of the regular Hostel facility.

The University will take appropriate decision about re-opening of the Hostel facility only after direction/guidelines received from Ministry of Education, Government of India/ University Grants Commission and assessing the situation of COVID-19 pandemic in Telangana State or Hyderabad/GHMC.

Further, the students of final year shall appear in examination through online from their respective homes. Note: No Hostel facility will be provided to any final year students to appear in the examination.
